

Lesson 1

Islamic Expressions

Colour the Words in Arabic.

When we meet someone, instead of 'Hi!' we say:

السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ

AS-SALAM ALAYKUM

Peace be with you

The reply when someone says 'Salām' to us is:

وَعَلَيْكُمْ السَّلَامُ

WA ALAYKUM SALAM

And peace be with you

Lesson 1

Islamic Expressions

INSHA ALLAH!

One day Imam Ali ('a) was carrying a bag filled with date seeds. He was asked, "What are you carrying in this heavy bag?"

"A few date palms, Insha Allah", replied Imam Ali ('a). Since Imam Ali ('a) had faith in Allah he knew that if Allah willed the date seeds would soon become trees.

Sure enough after he had planted them and looked after them they started growing into trees that would feed others. With faith in Allah and hard work everything is possible!

Draw a picture of something you should say Insha Allah after you decide to do it:

Story Time!

ALI LEARNS TO SAY INSHA ALLAH

Insha Allah means 'If Allah Wishes'. This means that no matter how much we plan something, if Allah does not want it to happen, it will not happen.

Little Ali's mummy had told him again and again to say Insha Allah after he said he was going to do something. But Ali usually didn't say insha Allah.

One day, Ali decided he wanted to go to the park to play. He looked out of the window and the sun was shining.

It was a nice day!

He asked his mummy if she would drive him to the park later. She said she would insha Allah take him that afternoon.

Ali called his friends to tell them that he was going to the park that afternoon.

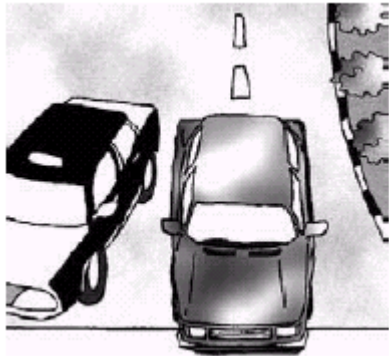

Ali's mummy heard him and told him that he should have said that he was going to go to the park Insha Allah.

Ali replied that that he was going for sure because the day was so nice.

That afternoon, when it was time to go to the park, the sky was had become less sunny and much more cloudy, but Ali was still happy about driving to the park.

But just before he reached the park, it started to rain. Very soon, it was raining very heavily, and Ali's mummy said he could not play in the park in the rain, so they drove back home. Ali was very sad.

The next day Ali made sure he said Insha Allah after everything he was planning to do.

you to do something, then you will do it. So always make sure you say Insha Allah when you plan on doing something.

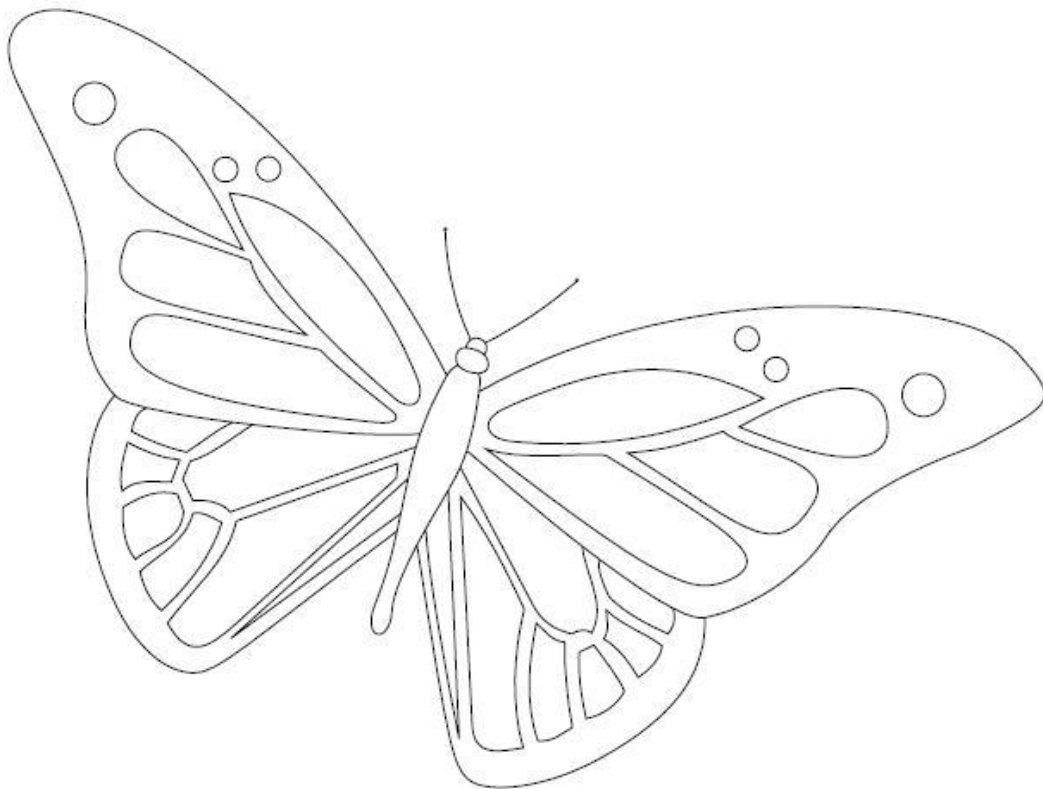

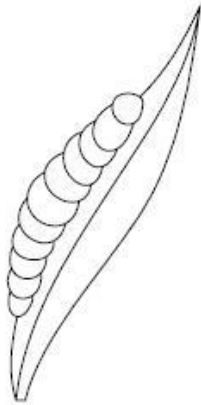

Insha Allah means 'if Allah wishes'

But remember, you should not say Insha Allah when you know you do not intend to do something.

Lesson 3

Cleanliness & Table Manners

Classwork: Allah (s.w.t.) LOVES people who are clean. Let us make our Madrasah look like a Muslim's Madrasah. Today we can help keep our Madrasah clean. When you go out for salāh or your next class and see any garbage on the way, pick it up and put it in the garbage bin. Everyone will be proud of you!

Homework: Your homework is to help your Mom or your Dad clean up one day this week. You could clean up your room. You could clean up after your baby brother or sister plays with toys. You could help with the dishes one day after dinner. You can do ANYTHING to help your parents clean up. Then make sure your mom or dad signs below, and show it to your teacher. Your parents and your teacher will be very proud of you!

Masha Allah!

_____ is a very clean child.

Today, he/she helped me keep the house clean by:

May Allah always bless my child, Insha Allah.

Signature of Parent: _____

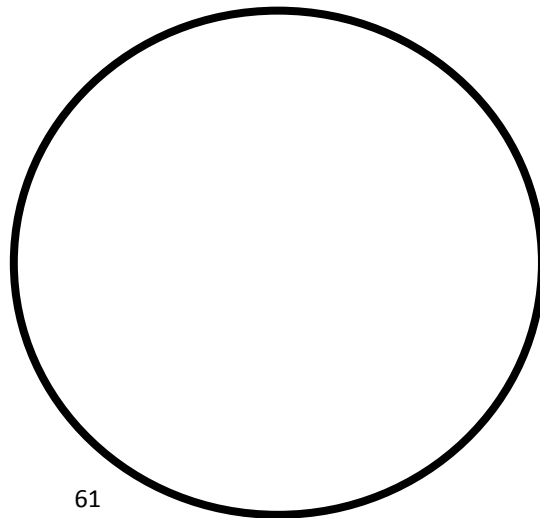

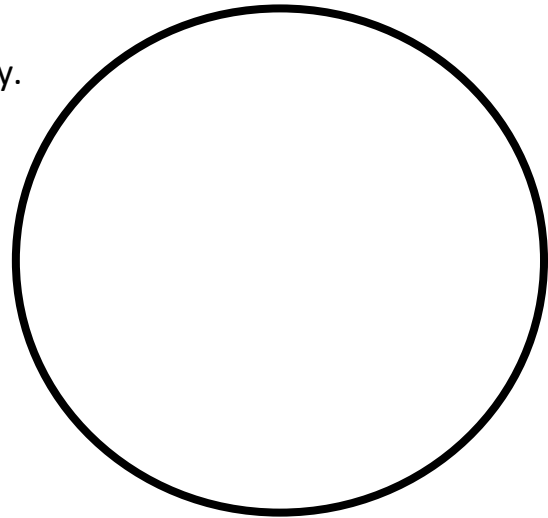

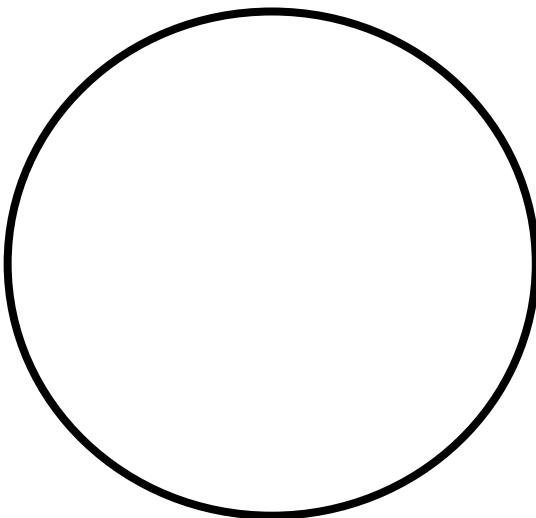

Lesson 3

Cleanliness & Table Manners

We should make sure what we eat is halāl and that our homes are clean and our rooms are tidy. In the other circles below draw what we should do to keep ourself clean.

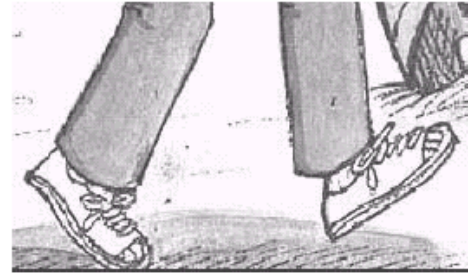

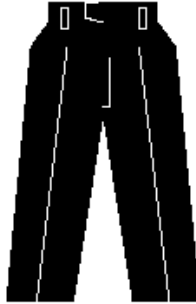

Change our clothes when they are dirty.

WASHROOM MANNERS

Number the following in the right order.

MANNERS OF DRINKING

Your teacher is going to give you all a glass with a drink in it. Show him/her how you would drink it if it was daytime. Show him/her how you would drink it if it was night. Don't forget to say the magic Islamic words before and after you drink!

Homework

Draw a sun where it tells you how you should drink water in the daytime. Draw a moon where it tells you how you should drink water at night. Make your pictures nice and colourful!

It is better to stand and drink water.	Picture
It is better to sit and drink water.	Picture

Homework

The boxes on this and the next page are not in order. Cut them out and glue them on construction paper or Bristol board in the proper order. Put a title at the top of your chart, called “Islamic Table Manners”.

When you are done gluing, you can decorate your new chart the way you like. Be sure to make it look nice. Bring it back to your teacher next week, so he/she can see what a wonderful job you have done.

When your teacher has seen it, you can take it home and put it up somewhere where you are sure you will be able to see it. Then you will ALWAYS remember your table manners and be a good and polite Muslim 😊!

Do not eat the food while it is very hot. Wait for it to become warm.

It is sunnah to wash your hands before eating. It is also good NOT to dry your hands.

Eat with your right hand.

Start your meal by tasting a little salt.

Eating too much is not good. You should also not waste your food. Only put food on your plate if you can eat it.

Wash your hands when you are done eating. This time, dry your hands.

Pick up small bites, chew your food well with your mouth closed.

Do not try to talk while you are chewing.

Say Bismillah before you start eating your food.

When you are done eating, say Alhamdulillah!

Lesson 5

Allah Loves the Brave

Colour the picture below showing Imam Ali ('a) putting his life in danger by sleeping in place of Rasulullah (s) on the night of Hijrah. Can you find the same picture in your Diniyat Book?

Lesson 6

Sharing with Others

PRACTICAL ACTIVITY

Class teacher to arrange an activity on sharing with others e.g. sharing a meal or a personal toy or a possession with other students.

The child should not simply buy a gift for another child. That teaches generosity but not selflessness. The child can however be given a toy or book to keep for a few weeks, build attachment to it, and then be asked to give it away to another child. That enforces sharing and selflessness.

HOW MANY WOULD YOU SHARE?

If you had all this candy, how much would you share? Put a ✓ on all the candy you would share and a ✗ on all the candy you would not.
