

Lesson 1

Islamic Expressions

Colour the Arabic words below and say it aloud as you colour.

To thank Allah, when we finish our food and when we sneeze, we say:

الحمد لله

Al-Hamdu Lilāh

ALL PRAISE BE TO ALLAH!

Lesson 1

Islamic Expressions

Colour the Arabic words below and say it aloud as you colour.

When we hear someone sneeze, we say:

يَرْحَمُكَ اللَّهُ

Yarhamu kallāh (for a boy)

Yarhamu killāh (for a girl)

MAY ALLAH HAVE MERCY ON YOU!

Lesson 1

Islamic Expressions

Colour the Arabic words below and say it aloud as you colour.

When we do something wrong by mistake or when we see someone doing something bad or harām, we say:

Astagh firullāh

I ASK ALLAH TO FORGIVE ME!

Story Time
ABDULLAH LEARNS TO SAY
INSHA ALLAH

Abdullah had a big farm in which he used to grow vegetables. When his vegetables were fully-grown, he realized that he needed a donkey to carry his produce to the market. Abdullah said to himself, "I must go to the market and buy a donkey right now." On the way to the market, he met his friend Muhammad.

"Salamun alaykum Abdullah!" said Muhammad. "How are you? Where are you going today?"

"Walaykum salām!" replied Abdullah excitedly. "I am going to the market to buy a donkey."

"Dear Abdullah," advised Muhammad, "whenever you plan to do something, you should always say 'Insha Allah'."

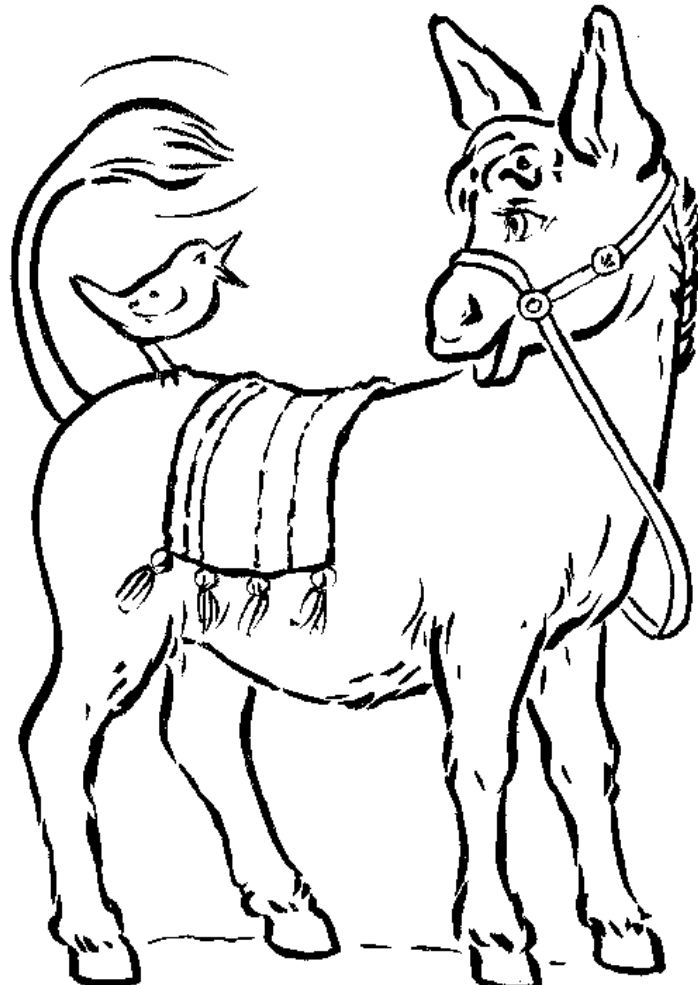

"But why?" asked Abdullah proudly. "I have money in my pocket and there must be a donkey in the market. I just have to go and buy one. I don't need to say 'insha Allah!'" And so Abdullah left his friend and continued to walk to the market. At the market, he saw different donkeys and mules. Finally he selected one and asked to owner: "What is the price of this donkey, Sir?"

"Thirty Dinars," said the owner. And so Abdullah put his hand into his pocket to take out the money. But to his surprise, his pocket was empty and there was no money. "Ya Allah!" cried Abdullah, "where is my money gone???"

Just then Abdullah noticed he had a hole in his pocket. So his money must have fallen off on the way to the market. Feeling very sad Abdullah began walking back home. On the way, he met his friend Muhammad again. "Where are you coming from Abdullah?" asked Muhammad, "And where is your donkey?"

And Abdullah began to say: "I am coming from the market, insha Allah...my pocket had a hole insha Allah... when I got to the market insha Allah, I put my hand in my pocket insha Allah... but the money was all gone, Insha Allah! So I couldn't buy the donkey, insha Allah!!..."

And Abdullah kept saying "insha Allah" but it was too late! From that day onwards, Abdullah never forgot to say Insha Allah (If Allah wishes!). Now colour the picture of the donkey that Abdullah wanted to buy.

Lesson 1

Islamic Expressions

Abbas has just woken up. He goes downstairs and sees his Mum and Dad making breakfast. What is the first thing he should say to them? Colour in the right answer.

Good Morning
Mom!

As-Salamu
Alaykum!

What's up,
Dude!

Sakina puts on her shoes and is going out. What should she say to her Dad? Colour in the right answer.

Fi Amanillah!

See you later,
Alligator!

Alhamdulillah!

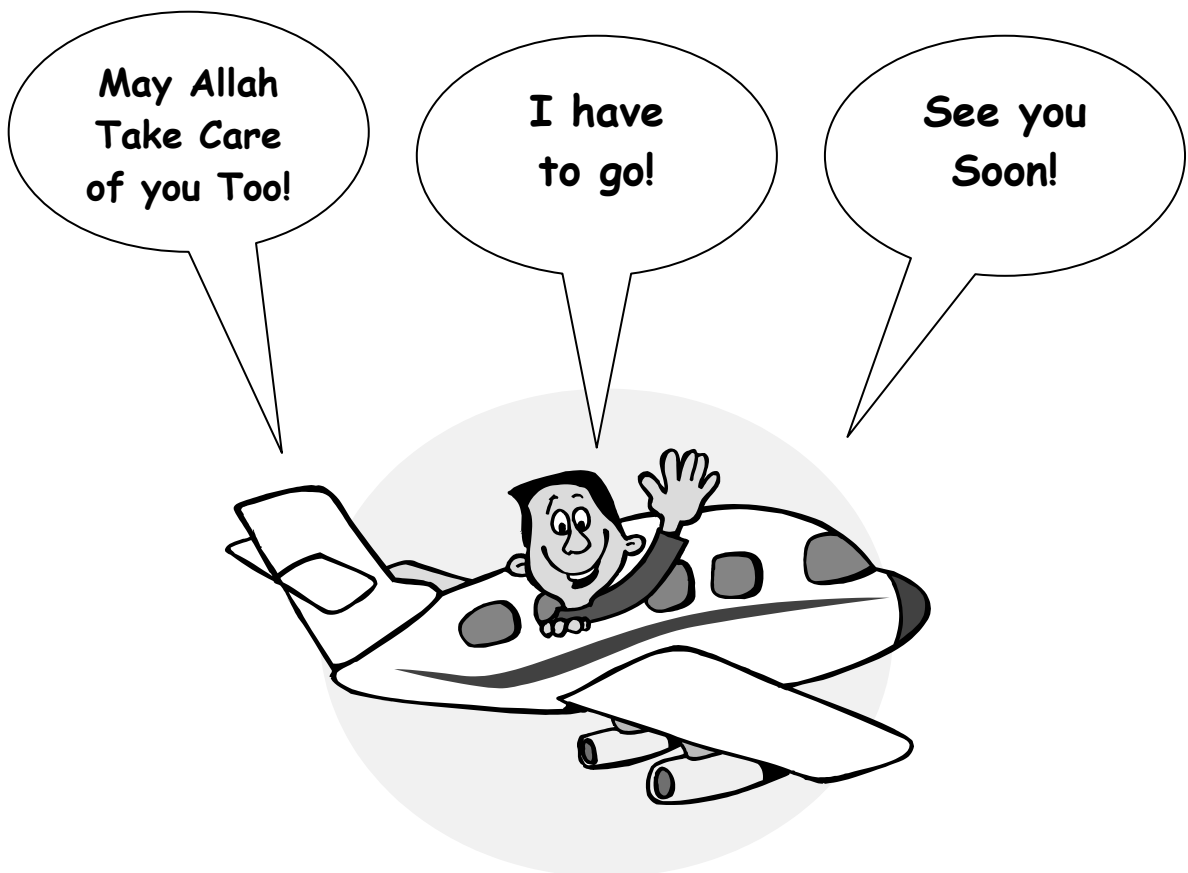

Lesson 1

Islamic Expressions

Colour in the picture of Mustafa, as he says "Fi Amanil lāh" to his friends.

What does Fi Amānil lāh mean?

Colour in the right bubble.

Lesson 1

Islamic Expressions

THANKING OTHERS

When someone helps you or gives you something you say 'Jazak Allah'. Draw 2 pictures of when someone would say Jazak Allah:

E.g.: Helping Mummy to sweep up the leaves:

Lesson 1

Islamic Expressions

SNEEZE SPINNER

Your teacher will help you make a spinner like the one on the next page.

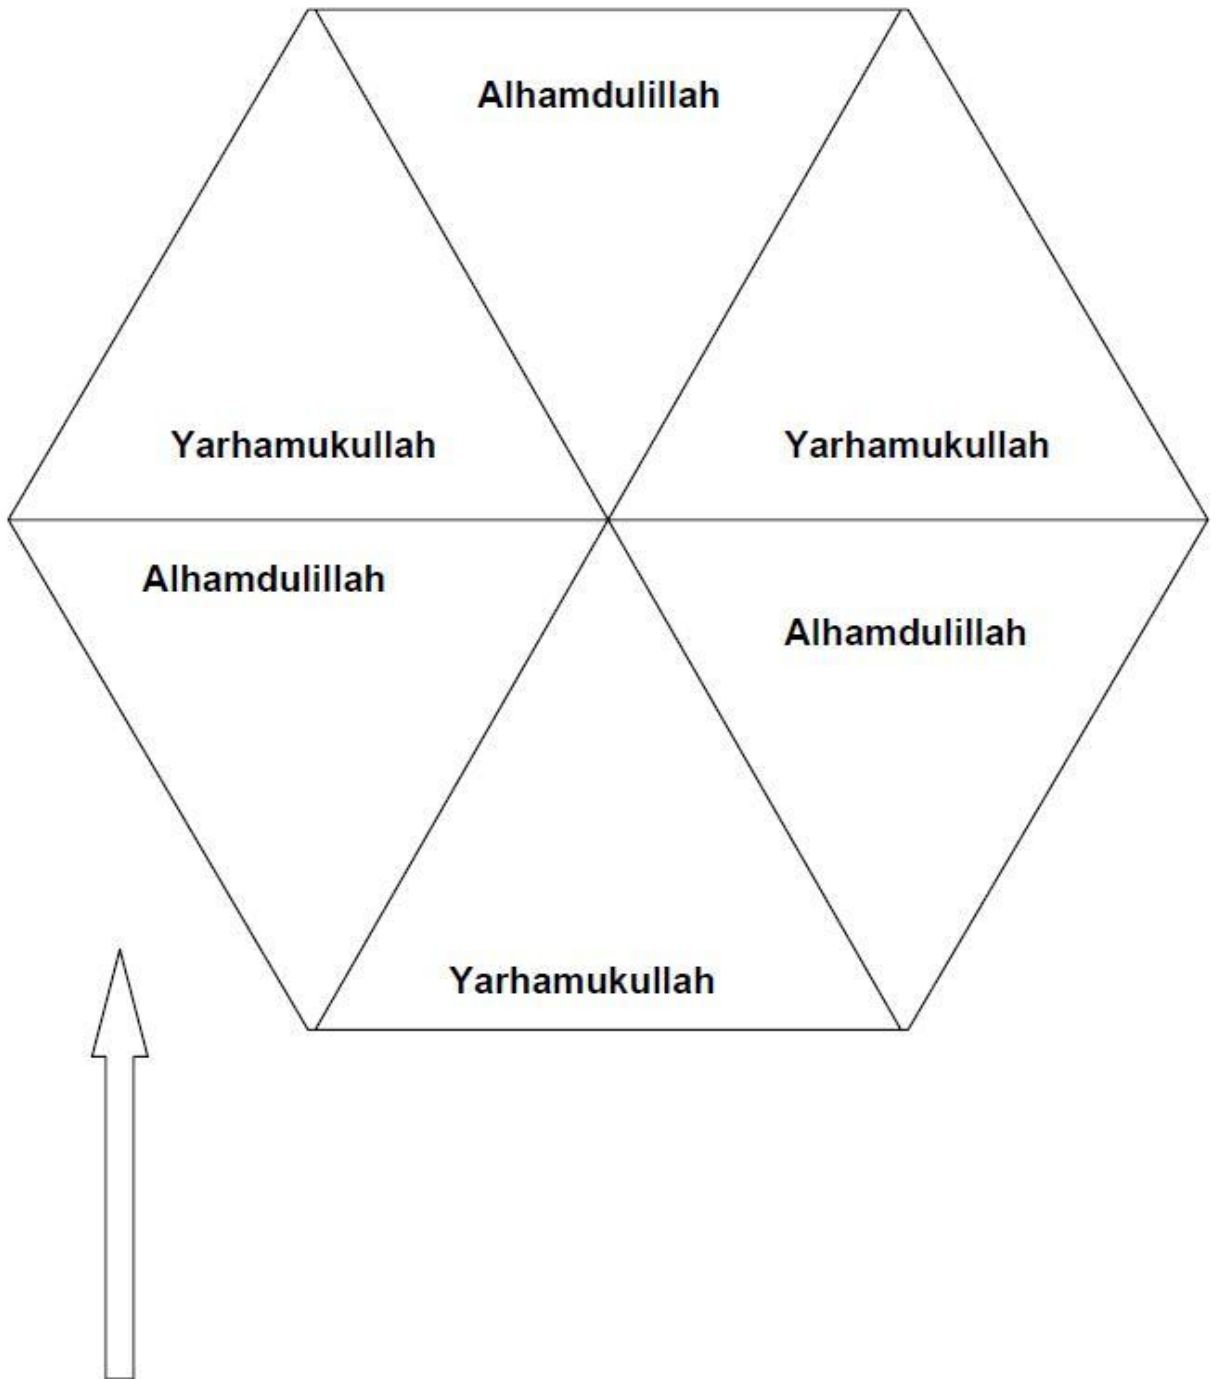

Instructions:

1. Cut out the hexagon on the next page and stick it on a piece of card.
2. Make an arrow like the one on the next page (but a little wider).
3. Punch a small hole in the middle of the card and another hole in the tail edge of the arrow.
4. Hold the arrow in the middle of the card either with an eyelet or a piece of straw so that the arrow spins freely on the card.

How to Play:

1. Sit in a circle with all your friends.
2. Each person gets a turn to spin the arrow while another person pretends to sneeze.
3. The word that the arrow lands on has to be said loudly. It should be said aloud either by the one who sneezed or all the others who didn't sneeze.

Who should say the word the arrow lands on? the person who sneezed or the friends?

This page left blank intentionally to allow cut out on previous page.

Lesson 3

Entering & Leaving Home & Manners at the Masjid

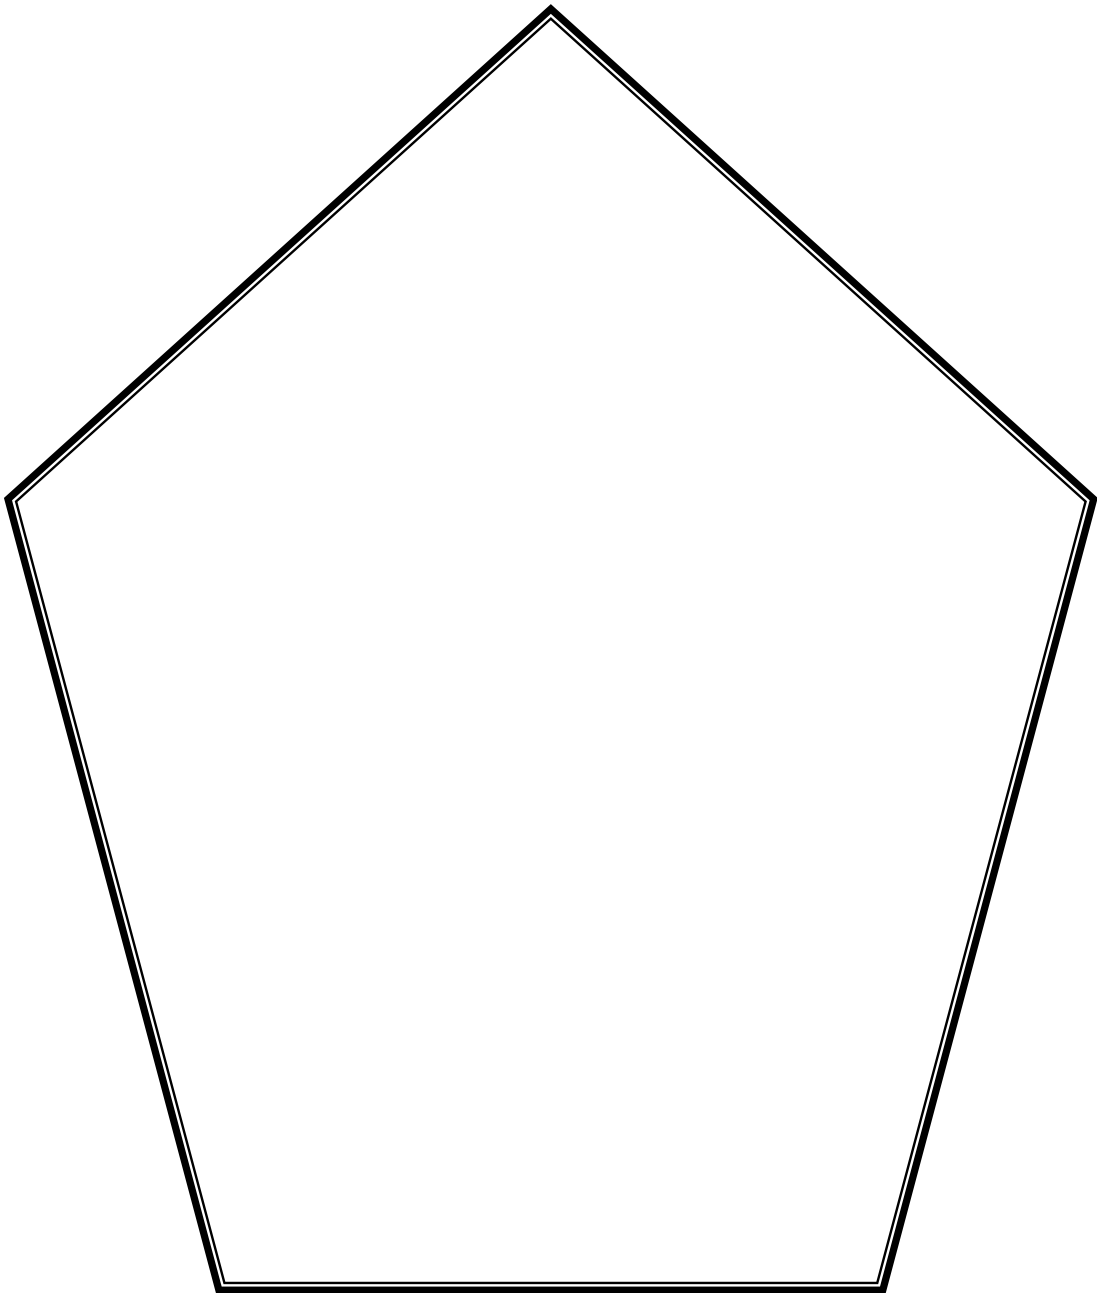

Yusuf cannot remember which foot he should enter his house or the masjid with - help him by circling the foot he should enter with.

Lesson 5

Always Say the Truth

Give an example of when you were brave and said the truth and did not lie. Or give an example of an honest thing you did, not to cheat someone:

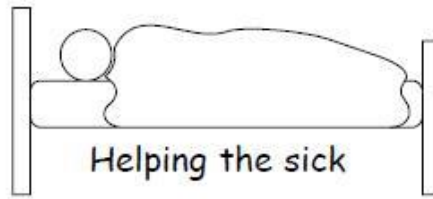

Colour the things you will use your hands for to help others.

Stealing

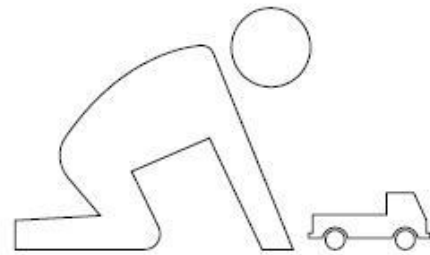

Helping the old

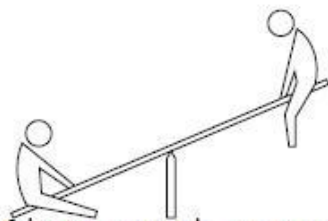

Helping the sick

Fighting

Tidying up toys

Playing with younger ones

Hitting

Helping mum

Lesson 6

Always be Polite and Nice to Others

What would you do?

1. You are invited to a friend's house for a birthday party. At dinner time, you all sit down to eat, but one of your friends is all by himself, and no one has called him. What would you do?
2. You go out to play with your friends, and they start to speak badly about someone who you don't like either. What would you do?
3. Your father brings you to the masjid, and tells you that he has to go out, and will pick you up later. When he leaves, you see your friends go behind the masjid to play. What would you do?
4. You are serving tea in the masjid, and one of the older volunteers tells you to sit down, and calls you a "silly little boy". What would you do?
5. You are in madrasah, and the teacher is late. All your friends start throwing pieces of paper at each other, and playing around. What would you do?

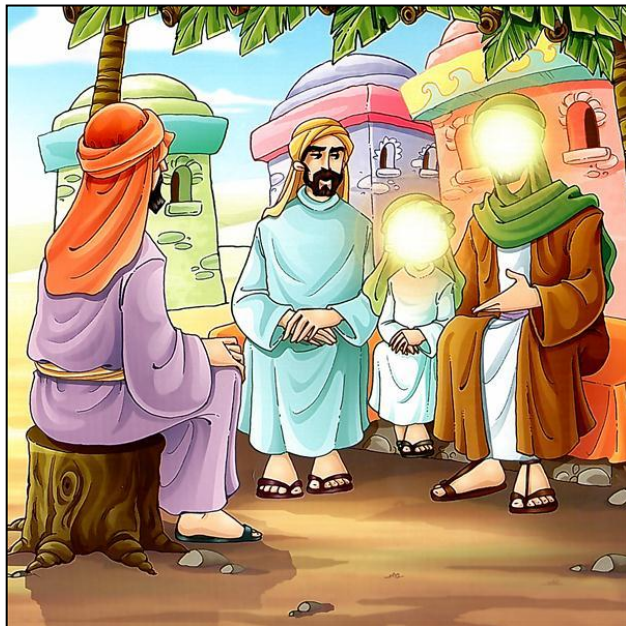

Story Time!

ALWAYS BE POLITE AND NICE TO OTHERS

The Ignorant Bedouin

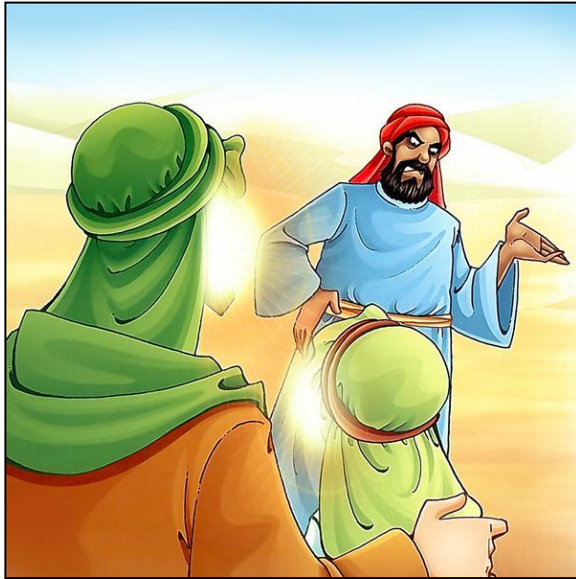

Rasulullāh (s) was one day sitting with some Muslims when Imām Hasan ('a) who was a little boy, came towards him. Rasulullāh (s) said, 'Hasan is walking with the angels Jibrail and Mikail besides him.' Then Rasulullāh (s) made Imām Hasan ('a) sit next him and said, 'You are the apple of my eyes.' And he said to the Muslims, 'This grandson of mine will one day be a guide for people and he will teach them religion and save Islam.'

Just then Rasulullāh (s) saw a Bedouin coming towards him, pulling his cart and he knew that the man was angry and wanted to do something bad.

The Bedouin came close and did not even say, 'salam alaykum'. He just shouted angrily, 'Who amongst you is Muhammad?!' The Muslims asked him, 'What do you want?'

‘I want Muhammad!’ the man shouted rudely. So Rasulullāh (s) said, ‘I am Muhammad....’

The Bedouin now spoke harshly and said to Rasulullāh (s), ‘O Muhammad! I used to hate you even before I saw you. And now I have seen you and I hate you even more!’

The Muslims got very angry, but Rasulullāh (s) told them to keep quiet. He smiled and tried to calm down the Bedouin. The Bedouin spoke again and said angrily, ‘O Muhammad! You say you are a Prophet from Allah. But you have no proof like all the other prophets of Allah. If you are a Nabi, then show me your proof!!’

So Rasulullāh (s) said to the Bedouin, ‘If a part of me shows you the proof, will you believe it?’ The Bedouin laughed and said, ‘Ha! How can a part of a person speak, O Muhammad?!’

And Rasulullāh (s) said, ‘Yes. This little boy Hasan is a part of me. Stand O Hasan and give him proof that I am the Messenger of Allah.’

The Bedouin laughed even more and said, ‘Ha! I asked him for proof and he is asking a little boy to give me proof that he is a Prophet of Allah... what a joke!!’ Imām Hasan (‘a) said to the Bedouin, ‘Insha Allah you will not leave this place without being convinced of the truth and becoming a Muslim.’

‘How is that, little boy?!’ the Bedouin asked in surprise.

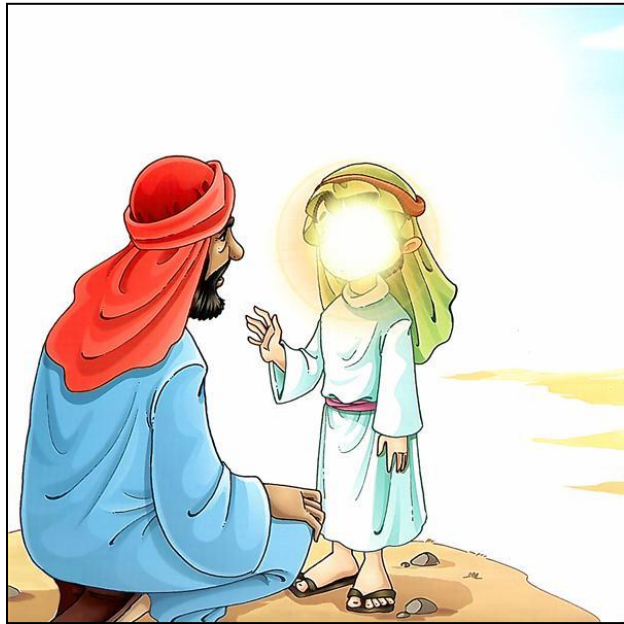

Imām Hasan (‘a) said to him, ‘Before you came here, you had a meeting with your people and you decided that you would kill Rasulullāh (s). So you volunteered to kill him and you carried a weapon with you that you are hiding under your clothes. Come on now, take out the weapon you are hiding.’

The Bedouin was very surprised how the little boy knew his secret and everything about his plan.

Then Imām Hasan (‘a) said to him, ‘I will tell you everything that happened on your journey to Madina. You were in the desert when there was a terrible sandstorm and you were really scared and thought you would die. Then you slept on your face and held the sand tightly in your hands waiting to die when suddenly you opened your eyes and found yourself near Madina. There was no desert or storm and your fear of dying disappeared and you were very happy.’

The Bedouin was even more surprised at the words of Imām Hasan (‘a) and he said to him, ‘How do you know all this? Were you with me in the desert? Everything you have described is exactly as it happened, as if you were with me and saw everything... how do you know the hidden?!’

Imām Hasan (‘a) smiled and began talking to the man politely and with kindness and slowly the Bedouin’s heart changed. Instead of hatred, he started feeling love for Rasulullāh (s) and for Imām Hasan (‘a). The Bedouin then asked Imām Hasan (‘a), ‘What is Islam? Teach me!’

Imām Hasan (‘a) told him, ‘Islam means to believe that Allah is the greatest (Allahu Akbar) and there is no god except Allah (la ilāha ilallah), He is the only one and has no partner and that Muhammad is His servant and messenger

(Muhammadun abduhu wa rasuluhu).’

The Bedouin now felt ashamed because of how rude he had been with the Messenger of Allah (s). He apologized and decided he wanted to become a Muslim. He now believed in Rasulullāh (s) and the Qur’an, all because of Imām Hasan (‘a), the grandson of Rasulullāh (s) and because of the kindness and politeness of Rasulullāh (s).

The Bedouin then became a good Muslim and a follower of Rasulullāh (s) and went back to his people and told them his story and soon all of them became Muslims too

Moral of the Story:

Some people are bad only because they don’t know the truth. Instead of fighting, you can change an ignorant person with your good manners.

NEVER GET ANGRY WITHOUT GOOD REASON

One way to be nice is never to get angry without good reason. A nice person does not lose his or her temper easily.

Imām Ali ('a) had a servant called Qambar. One day Qambar decided he would test Imām Ali ('a) by trying to make him angry. But Imām Ali ('a) never got angry. Read the story below then colour it and tell the story to your mom or dad.

STORY TIME

IMĀM HASAN ('A)

Once a follower of Mu'awiya came from Damascus to Madina. When he saw our 2nd Imam, Imām Hasan ('a), he started to shout names and use foul language at the Imām ('a), because Mu'awiya had told him horrible things about Imām ('a).

The followers of Imām Hasan ('a) wanted to punish the man for what he had said but Imām ('a) told them to leave him alone.

Imām Hasan ('a) then turned to the man and greeted him with 'salām' after which Imām ('a) asked the man if he was hungry or needed a place to stay so he could help him.

When the man saw the akhlāq of Imām Hasan ('a), he realized that what Mu'awiya had told him about Imām Hasan ('a) was all untrue and he felt very ashamed for being so rude.

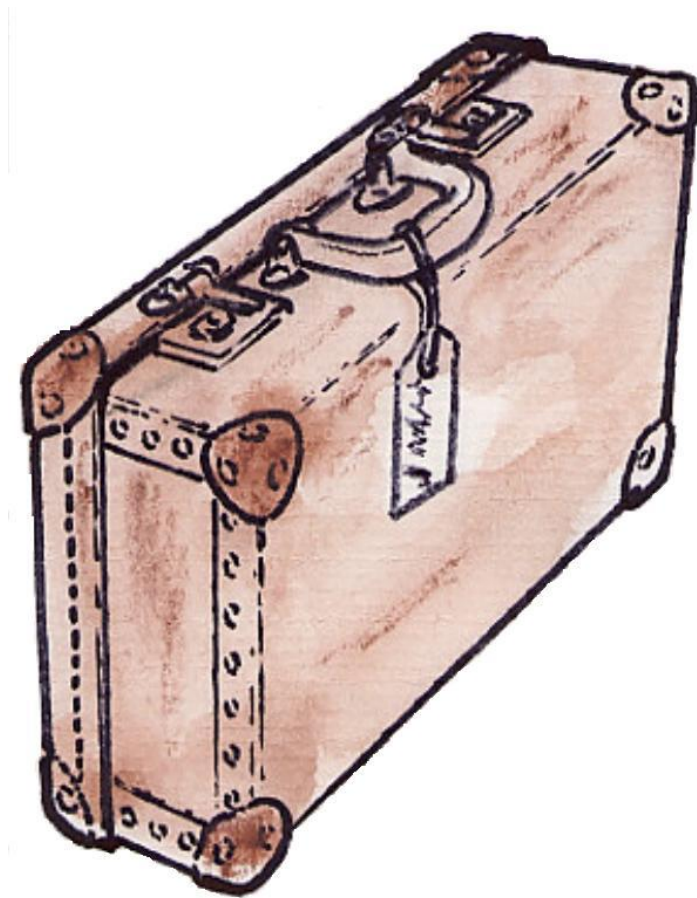

The man asked Imām Hasan ('a) for forgiveness. Thereafter, whenever he heard anyone say anything against Imām Hasan ('a) he would defend Imām Hasan ('a) and correct them.

Moral:

1. Never get angry at someone when they are angry - It takes two people to start a fight.
2. No matter how other people act you should always have perfect akhlāq.
3. Never believe bad things about other people that you have heard until you know for sure.

GOOD MANNERS GO TO JANNAH

Amina is packing to go to Jannah. Circle from the list below what she needs to pack in her suitcase before going to Jannah.

Kalima

Sunglasses

Qur'an

Story Books

Swim suit

Good Akhlaq

Fasting

Naughty deeds

Duas

Sadaqa

Salāh

Hajj

Candy

Shoes

Cell phone

AHMAD VISITS HIS FRIEND

Ahmad was a very curious young boy. He liked to know everything and to see everything. One day Ahmad went to visit his friend Ali. When he was at Ali's house, he saw a big blue shiny bag. Ali told Ahmad not to touch the bag because his mother had said no one is supposed to open it. But Ahmad was very curious. When his friend Ali was not looking, Ahmad opened the bag and put his hand in to see what he could find. He found a beautiful red car.

'Look at what I found! Look!!' Ahmad shouted excitedly. Just then Ali's mother walked in. 'Ahmad!' she shouted angrily, 'That was Ali's Eid gift! You have ruined his surprise!'

Ali was very sad. He began to cry. And Ahmad felt very bad because he was naughty and because he opened something that was not his and without permission. So he went home crying too.

Allah does not like people to open or use other people's things without asking their permission. This is harām. We should therefore always ask first, 'Can I look, please?' or 'Can I play with this please?'

Lesson 7

Allah does not like those who Waste

Colour the picture below.

Never litter and always recycle!

Lesson 7

Allah does not like those who Waste

Isrāf is not just with food. It can also be with other things. Draw 4 things that we should not do isrāf of:

E.g.: we should not waste our whole day by just sleeping.

